

EPM Consultant (Project-based or long-term support)

We are looking for EPM project-based or long-term support consultants to join our team.

For over two decades, Futuresense has helped CFOs to manage current uncertainty and risk, and confidently implement a framework that allows future scenarios to be explored.

Our Mission is to have a team of the best EPM specialists in the world working on a marquee of projects. Futuresense is a place where like-minded people come together to do amazing work. Everyone is able to build a career within a team that is able to apply its skills anywhere in the world.

Key Competencies Required:

- Experience in Financial Planning, Reporting and Analysis, Consolidation, Budgeting and Forecasting
- Excellent understanding of accounting consolidation fundamentals (Income Statement, Balance Sheet, and Cash Flow)
- Experience with EPM implementations including scoping requirements, designing, building, testing, training, and documentation
- Writing and maintaining complex business rules

What you will be working on

- Finding elegant solutions to technical problems
- Helping to improve our client's processes through clever use of technology
- Collaborating to create a solution that works for each customer
- Supporting and advising clients throughout a project

What we are looking for

A business or finance degree with experience in planning, budgeting, forecasting, and/or group consolidations, with 2 years of post-graduate experience

What's in it for you?

- Structured career development – our team of industry experts are here to support and work with you to explore your potential and your goals

- Flexibility – we're outcomes-based, so you will be splitting your time between the office, clients, and home
- Competitive remuneration
- Additional benefits – including medical aid contributions, pension

We want you!

Become a black belt EPM consultant

A niche business consultancy, Futuresense offers tailored EPM solutions across Africa and Europe focussing on Oracle and OneStream. We empower finance teams with a trusted system and accurate numbers that provide critical information and deep insights into their business, allowing them to proactively meet the organisation's financial objectives.

Our team of consultants has a black belt in solving financial challenges, regularly undertaking marquee projects, and consistently delivering exceptional results. Made up of a diverse group of people, our team can deliver on any project, finding solutions while remaining excited about the work they do.

Simply put, our "black belt" consultants solve problems that clients value.

"Every day at the office is like hanging out with close friends with a bit of work in between. No, I'm just kidding! The culture is great, the clients are friendly and helpful, and I'm able to grow myself in various avenues." Allison, EPM Consultant.
